Key

I - COMPREHENSION:

A –
1. Thanks to the expansion of electronic communication, people find more and more ways to expand their network of friends via email and text messaging.
2. Because she sends so many messages to her friends
3. People can take their time planning their message - they can choose when they want to respond to someone

B –
1. True: "we don't have to spend ages planning an evening out. You can just send the same message to everyone"
2. True: "text messaging and email also help Jane keep in touch with old schoolmates she would probably have lost contact with otherwise.
3. False: 'I've always given my number out to students and told them to call me if they have any problems. But no one ever did.

C –
1. making friends and talking to each other
2. email her or send her messages
3. the overuse of abbreviations which might cause a few difficulties

D – 1. to expand 2. an opportunity

E –
1 . Jane Adams and her friends
2. these forms of communication (email & text messaging)
3. text messaging

II - LANGUAGE:

A – whose – who – which

B –
1. People mustn't swim and fish in this lake.
2. ... to stop arguing and listen to her.
3. ... I could see my friends while chatting!

C – had been living - met - will have been

D – 1. looking forward to 2. turned down 3. makes up

E – empower – status – development

F –
1. Although plastic bags are dangerous for the environment, many people still use them.
2. some skilled workers aren't satisfied ... countries. Therefore, they emigrate.
3. We rarely play music at night so as not to disturb our neighbours.